

Charter of the Terralliance Association

Terralliance is a non-profit association (de type loi 1901). Created in March of 2004 by men and women of no specific political allegiance.

Article 1:

Terralliance Association works primarily to protect planet earth and all living things and to promote peace, solidarity, awareness and respect.

The Association is unaffiliated to any religious or political organizations.

Article 2:

The values of the Association are drawn from the Charter of the United Nations and the Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen.

Article 1 of these documents states: All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights. They are endowed with reason and conscience and should act towards one another in a spirit of brotherhood.

Article 3:

The Association considers an open heart and spirit to be the most important factor in dialogue and gives priority to those oriented towards constructive action.

Article 4:

The Association is based on the following 2 convictions:

1. The state of our planet is in decline as a result of numerous fratricidal wars and the degradation of our environment.
2. While local initiatives and awareness are becoming more and more significant, the effects of international efforts will only be felt in the long term.

Article 5:

On a worldwide scale:

The association aims to:

- * Unite existing movements working to protect the planet and to promote international solidarity.
- * Conduct research and intensify synergy and cooperation between countries.

The association will promote demonstrations of solidarity for a better understanding and engagement of the global community.

The events take place in 18 plus cities and locations in France and are coordinated with efforts in Canada, Switzerland, Spain, Portugal, Columbia, a.s.o.
